A. J. Rosier, County Attorney reporting this day to the Board that he had examined all papers herein, in the matter of the proposed incorporation of the town of Elmo , and gave as his opinion that the same, in his opinion, conforms with the law of the State of Wyoming relative to the incorporation of towns therein .

The Board of County Commissioners being satisfied that all requirements of Chapter 120 of the Compiled Statutes of Wyoming, 1910, relative to the incorporation of towns had been fully complied with, <sup>according to the papers on file</sup> and that such territory contained the requisite population, according to the verified census taken, does hereby order that John Parkko, J. R. Mann and Fritz Stebner be and the same now are appointed Inspectors, who shall call an election of Qualified Electors residing within the territory embraced within the limits of said proposed town of ELMO, as the same are now described and platted, at which said election the question to be balloted on shall be, FOR INCORPORATION or AGAINST INCORPORATION. to be held in a building in some convenient and public place and within said limits, as by law provided, and that notice thereof shall be given by posting of said notice in eight (8) public places within said limits in the absence of a newspaper published therein.

The said posting of said notices to be not less than three weeks preceeding said election; which said Inspectors severally appointed, as aforesaid, shall act as Judges and Clerks of said Election and as such shall qualify, as by law required, and shall report the result of the ballot to the said Board of County Commissioners of Carbon County and file the same with the County Clerk thereof and the ballots used at such election shall be FOR INCORPORATION or AGAINST INCORPORATION.

The Clerk was instructed to notify the above named Inspectors accordingly.
